TERMS, CONDITIONS, MEDICAL/LIABILITY RELEASE

In anticipation of my acceptance to participate in the WISE Short-Term program, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of my host family and WISE. I also agree that if my behavior is in violation of host family or WISE standards of conduct, or if an illness, accident, or injury causes me to terminate the program early, I will be repatriated at my expense. I also agree to reimburse WISE for any costs incurred in my repatriation as well as for any loans or other expenses I have incurred.

I hereby release WISE, its Officers, Boards of Directors and Agents from any and all current and future claims, charges, costs, and/or causes of action for loss of property, personal injury, illness, accident, or death sustained by me or by my child during the time I am or he/she is on the WISE "Short-Term Program", whether covered by current insurance or not.

In case of illness, accident, or injury, I grant permission to examine and treat my child, whose signature appears below, at an appropriate medical facility and to make necessary referrals to outside physicians and facilities as indicated. I grant permission to release information regarding my child's health to any individuals designated by WISE and/or its representatives.

WISE reserves the right to charge or not to charge the Host Family, before or after the participant arrives. WISE makes no guarantee that the Host Family will have children or persons in the same age range as the participants.

As part of the Short-Term and Farmstay Programs, participants receive room and board according to the habits and traditions of the family. It is not guaranteed that a specific type of food will be served or that there will be a specific schedule of meals. When away from the Host Family home, participants are responsible for their own meals. The participants is not expected to work for room and board, however, participation in the daily home life and the general family chores is expected. Farm/Ranchstay participants are expected to assist their Host Family in assigned chores for 4-8 hours per day or at the discretion of the Host Family.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations concern your behavior during your participation in WISE's Short-Term/Farmstay Program. The goal of our program is cross-cultural understanding. However, due the cultural differences, questions may arise. In these instances, feel free to discuss your questions or concerns with your host family, the local WISE Area Representative, or the WISE office. A little common sense in these instances can be very useful. If you have any questions about the rules, please ask the organization in your home country to translate them and explain them in more detail. YOU MAY BE SENT HOME WITHOUT A SECOND CHANCE AT YOUR PARENT'S EXPENSES WITH NO REFUND OF MONEY IF YOU NOT FOLLOW THE RULES.

1. You must not break Host Family regulations about curfews, household chores for which you are responsible, smoking, or drinking. You may not have guests in the Host Family's home without their permission.
2. You cannot travel outside your host community without your Host Family's permission. Your Host Family must know where you are at all times, even if you are 21 years old or over. It is your responsibility to inform your Host Family when you are making plans to go out, where you are going, with whom, and when you will be back home.
3. You must receive the Host Family's permission for ALL telephone calls. All long-distance and international calls must be made "collect". Limit the number of calls you make to your family or your family makes to you. Excessive phone calls are disruptive and make your adjustment to the host country more difficult.
4. It is illegal in most states to consume any alcohol, including beer and wine, if you are under 21 years old. Drug use, other than medication prescribed by your physician, is strictly forbidden.
5. If you violate any local, state, or federal laws, you will be returned to your home country immediately.
6. You may not drive any cars or motorcycles during your stay.

Please attach to this application a letter written by you to your Host Family describing yourself, your family, your community, friends, leisure activities, and any information that will help your Host Family know you better. If you are applying for the Farmstay Program, please also describe in the letter your farm or ranch experience. If you have no experience, explain why you would like to live on a farm or ranch. WITHOUT THIS LETTER, YOUR APPLICATION IS NOT COMPLETE. In addition to the two portrait photographs you have attached to this application, please if possible, include photographs of your family and friends.

I have read and understood this application and agree to be fully bound by the terms, conditions, rules and regulations of the program as outlined in this application.
